THE HIGHEST QUALITY STANDARDS

BAZILIO products are produced by the Factory that meets BRC* standards.

Each product is being carefully examined and organoleptically tested before launching to a market.

Only unique flavors with our tasters' rates that are higher than that of competitors are approved for sale.

BRC – an international food safety standard that was developed in 1998 by the British Retail Consortium (Great Britain). BRC is a set of recommendations and guidelines for companies operating in food industry sector, especially supermarkets (mainly British supermarkets) and companies supplying their own brands (so-called private labels). Obtaining a BRC certificate by a company for an entire brand of products or for a specific brand product is a guarantee that the product has successfully passed specialized tests and inspections, is of high quality and is safe for consumers.
